

i pay for xm radio service for a reason, i do not like advertisements, so why should i have to listen to a station for a weather and traffic report and have to hear these ads, i love the instant traffic and weather, and this is a free market and xm has the right to do air these channels if they wish.